YINN Update...

YINN 3-20-17 BUY:

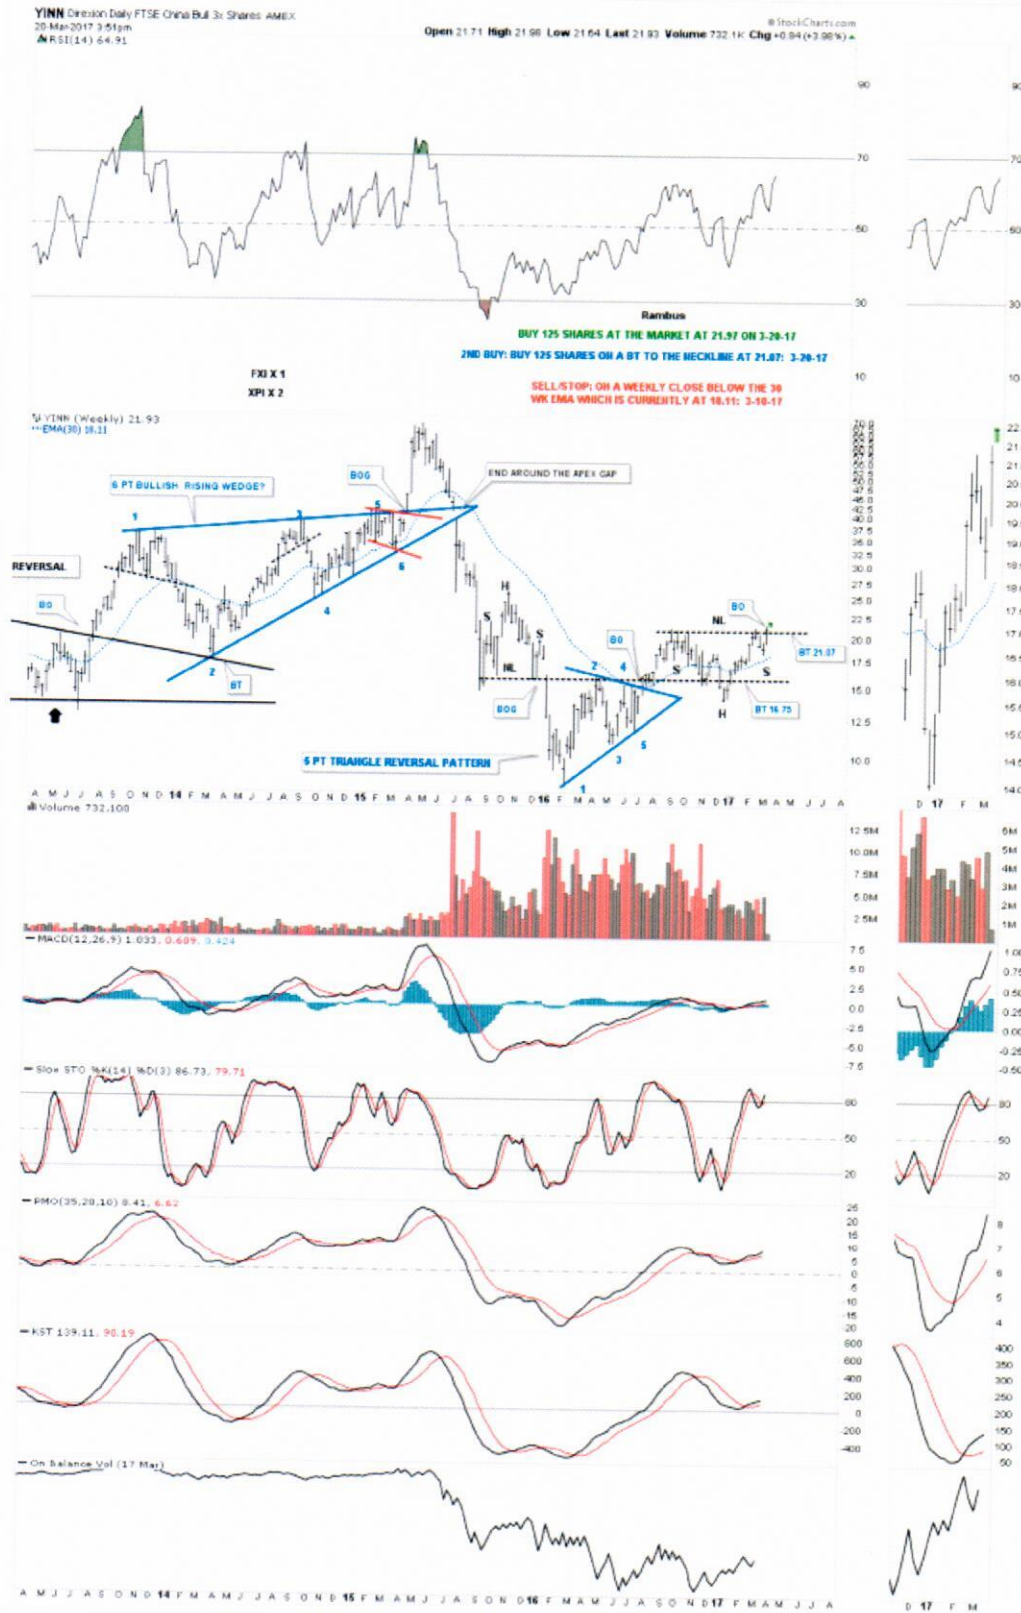

First lets look at the FXI which is a 1 X long etf for the China large cap stocks index. It broke out above the neckline 5 weeks ago and had a strong backtest to the neckline.

The YINN is a 3 X leveraged eff for the China stock market.

Based on the FXI I'm going to take an initial position and buy 125 shares at the market at 21.97 with the sell/stop on a weekly close below the 30 week ema which is currently at 18.11. If we get a backtest to the neckline I will take the second position and buy 125 shares at 21.07.
